Example: Dear Friend, This is your direct and honest guideline on how to place your order (with no affiliate links included) that will qualify for the lowest price. All orders are shipped within 24 hours if placed by 11:00 AM Monday-Friday. Please note that orders placed on this site qualify for free shipping in the 48 contiguous United States. 1. To receive the most up-to-date price, simply click on the link you will receive by email. If you have any questions about this process, feel free to contact me directly. 2. When you click on the "guarantee you receive the lowest price" link, you will be redirected to the competitor's home page. For exact pricing and quick delivery, I suggest you check on this competitor's site. 3. Once you are redirected to the competitor's site, you will see their store front fronting the web. For the lowest price, you should click on the "Find It" button to filter the products to find the item you want. If they do not have the item, ask them if they ever plan to carry this item. If they say "no", ask them if they can tell you when they do have it. If they don't know, move on and search for the item on their site. 4. If they do not have the item, if they are highly competitive, they may charge more for the item. If they do offer the item for less than the price at the moment, tell them you have seen the same item on their site for less than the advertised price. The competitor may reply by saying they always sell the item at the lowest price. If they say this, then your next action should be to click on the "Purchase" button and send them the email address you used to contact them to confirm your order. If you have not already done so, we encourage you to place your order using our link. After you have placed your order, we will forward you an email from PayPal with the lowest price and shipping information. You can then confirm your order right away by clicking on the PayPal link in the email we send you. Sincerely, Becky Y. GeneralI will only accept to ship to your PayPal verified address. You must have a PayPal account to purchase. You will receive an email from PayPal
